PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Designer and creative writer with experience spanning content strategy, editorial work, and visual production. Approaches design problems as a storyteller — with attention to how language, image, and structure shape the way people receive information.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance Content Strategist

Freelance - Various Clients, Dec 2024 - Present

- Managed customer-facing email communications for a hospitality client, drafting and editing correspondence while establishing and maintaining consistent brand voice
- Edited and proofread seasonal menus across multiple update cycles, making tone and messaging decisions aligned with brand identity
- Sourced and vetted content creators for promotional partnerships, coordinating with 3–5 creators per week at peak volume and developing evaluation criteria around audience fit and aesthetic alignment
- Art directed and photographed food content for print and digital promotional materials, including posters and in-venue displays
- Oversaw end-to-end production of a table marketing initiative, managing vendor sourcing, graphic design, photography, and print execution across multiple restaurant locations
